“ Uncle Glyn - this is the hardest thing to write and I have been avoiding it like I avoided going to see you again after the last time I saw you - since you were having such a hard time breathing and I hated seeing you that way.

You did a lot for me over the years and I appreciate everything. Your smile and laugh lit up the room. And you kept us all laughing whenever you came over my parents house. I loved hearing your stories from Vegas and your stories of when you were in the service. You did a lot for a lot of people and touched many lives. You will be missed! I hope you are at peace and just wanted you to know I love you! Karen Hale Memmolo

“ We are deeply saddened to hear about Glyn's passing. He was a family friend for over 40 years. Glyn and our father Harold were great pals and enjoyed many trips to take in a Red Sox game together. He was a man with a big heart and a warm smile for everyone. Glyn was and will be a Hampton institution. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Glyn was such a good friend. At Marelli's he came twice a day to read the paper, visit, eat his bran muffin and have coffee. He loved his town, his friends and his yearly trip to Vegas. Loyal, honest, sincere, he was one of a kind. We all will miss him. Karen Raynes

“ Uncle Glyn, the "Governor" in my eyes and an iconic member of the community. It's impossible to detail over 4 decades of family memories with you in one paragraph. I learned so much from you and your character to develop into who I am today. Thank you for my first motorcycle ride, my first job, teaching me how to catch pop flies and being such a close friend to my father and an important part of our family. Rest in peace. Kevin Hale

“ Glyn P. Eastman was the most kind, generous, wonderful man that you could know. He was a best friend of my husband Frank and to our entire family he has been a part of the family since the late 50's and early 60's. He spent many a Sunday at our home for dinner and most every Thanksgiving. We will miss "Uncle Glyn" as we all called him...very, very much...no one could replace him....the best!! I cannot believe he will be buried on his Birthday (6/20). Rest in Peace my friend. Frank and Susan Hale

“ I will always remember Glyn with an arm full of newspapers and "his heart warming smile" that would brighten up the day. We enjoyed our many long talks of local and world events. Last year I had a book signing(To Walk With My Brother) at the Partridge House. Glyn was there to get his book and to support me. Of course he was always "there" for all of us.

I will cherish my friendship with him and I sure will miss him.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Thornton

Although I haven't lived in Hampton since 1997, Glyn will always stand out in my mind as a go to guy, honest and sincere. I reported on many meetings for The Hampton Union where Glyn was involved. He was always a straight shooter but one with a sense of humor. I'll always remember his smile.
