

Gordon A. Yeaton

March 22, 1919 - December 22, 2014

Hampton - Gordon H. Yeaton, 95, of Hampton, died after a sudden illness on Monday, December 22, 2014 at the Exeter Hospital with devoted and loving family at his bedside.

Gordon was born in Hampton on March 22, 1919, a son of the late John B. and Clara H. (Hobbs) Yeaton.

He was a lifelong resident of Hampton and member of the First Congregational Church. Gordon worked many years as a tool and die maker for Kingston Warren Manufacturing of Newmarket and Newfields.

In addition to Elinor, his cherished wife of over 67 years, Gordon is survived by his sons and their wives: John B. and Terry and Charles and Patricia all of Hampton; his grandchildren Heather, Katie, Thomas and Sarah and his great grandchildren Caitlin and Aiden.

At Gordon's request, all services will be private and burial will be with his family in the High Street Cemetery in Hampton. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations be made to a charity of one's choice.

Cemetery Details

High Street Cemetery

150 High Street
Hampton, NH

Tribute Wall

“ Gordon A. Yeaton

September 18, 2022 at 12:49 AM

“ *Charlie, Pat, John and Terry - we were sad to learn of your Dad's passing but what a wonderful, long life he lived! Our sincere condolences to you all and Mrs. Yeaton and our thoughts are with you,
Paula and Jim Cushman*

Paula Cushman - January 07, 2015 at 08:21 AM

“ I worked with Gordon for many years at Kingston- Warren Corp.He was a true yankee craftsman,if it was broke he could fix it! I regret not stopping in to see him.He does have a memory in his home to remind me of him, I built him a fake gun with a toilet paper dispenser built into the stock to remind him of his old hunting days,when he would get into the woods early in the morning,somethings would have to happen,not always as planned .Very sorry to hear.Buzz Connolly and Family

Buzz Connolly - December 30, 2014 at 02:20 PM

MC

“ I am very sorry to hear about Mr Yeaton. I have often thought about he and your family as a memory as where I basically grew up in your house in the 50's and 60's .He is the first one to let me shoot a gun and there was always something exciting to do and he was always the type of father that everyone should be. I wrote his name as Mr Yeaton was the what I always knew him as and I always do in respect. Mark Coellner.

mark coellner - December 29, 2014 at 10:42 AM

DW

“ I was very saddened to hear of Gordon's recent passing, and I extend my sincerest condolences to Elinor and her family in this time of sorrow. I will never forget how easily and comfortably they accepted me as their next-door neighbor. I would stop by occasionally to say 'Hi' and chat awhile, and they would graciously give me vegetables from their garden, perennials from their flower beds, and time-honored advice from their wealth of New England experience. It seemed to me that Gordon never slowed down, and I will miss the sights and sounds of his activity, from tending his garden and cranking up his table saw, to his especially pleasing voice and laugh.

David Wilbur - December 28, 2014 at 09:03 AM