

Gregory Santosuosso

February 4, 1974 - March 23, 2024

Swampscott, MA - Gregory Santosuosso, of Swampscott, MA, passed away suddenly at Salem Hospital on Saturday, March 23, 2024. He was 50 years old.

Born in Boston on February 04, 1974, Greg was the son of Loretta (Lepore) Corbeil of Swampscott. Raised and educated in Andover, MA, Greg attended St. John's Preparatory School. Greg was a very talented and gifted student. Greg loved his Xaverian brothers and despite being accepted at Harvard, Princeton, and Yale, he chose to further his education at St. Anselm's College in Manchester. He received his degree in education focusing on history, politics and government. Greg volunteered his services in tutoring students in his area of expertise.

Greg is survived by his mother, Loretta (Lepore) Corbeil of Swampscott, MA, his cousins, Jo O'Brien and her husband Liam and their daughter Jamie Rich and her husband Rob and son Logan, all of Seabrook, and Edward Pires and his wife Emily of Sarasota, FL. He is predeceased by his aunt Catherine Orlandino and his grandparents, Frank and Josephine Lepore, all from the North End of Boston.

Family and friends will gather to honor and remember Greg for a graveside memorial service on Monday, April 8, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. at Hillside Cemetery,

28 Lafayette Road, Seabrook, NH 03874.
