“ Patricia,

I just found this very sad news while looking at the Bristol Press on line. Greg was one of my closest friends while in high school. Greg, Joe Janik, Jim Schermerhorn, Mark Lasrich and I used to spend many a night riding around in that old Corvair.

Unfortunately, we all lost contact with one another as the years went on but that certainly doesn't mean that he was not often in my thoughts. I remember his talent for music and always thought that he might have pursued that professionally. Somewhere along the line I did learn that he was planning to make a career of the Navy but I never knew if he really did it.

This year is the 50th anniversary of our graduation from THS. There is a reunion in the planning stage and you can be sure that I will mention Greg's name often. He was well liked and respected by all of his classmates.

Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss.
