

Harold C. Mirabito

October 16, 1957 - March 30, 2024

Hampton- Harold C. Mirabito, 66, of Hampton, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family, on Saturday, March 30, 2024. Born on October 16, 1957, in Newburyport, MA, he was a son of Paul Mirabito of Boxborough, MA, and Alice Phillips (Schrempf) of Seabrook. He shared 10 years of marriage with his wife, Sally (Christman), before the time of her passing in 2018.

Harold graduated from Whittier Technical Regional High School, class of 1975, where he studied carpentry. After high school, he worked for himself as a freelance bartender, and for a time he worked for the family business, Mirabito Market in Bradford, MA.

In his younger years, he enjoyed spending summers at Angle Pond Grove driving his speedboat. He loved driving his Barracuda, and spending time with his cousin Eddie Chase and uncle Larry Schrempf. Harold was a lifelong learner and could always be found reading or searching the internet for new things to learn.

In addition to his parents, Harold is survived by his sisters Dawn Hammel and Paula George, both of PA, and his stepdaughter Ashley Christman. He also leaves many nieces, nephews, and cousins, and his very special dog Buttercup.

All services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society by clicking here.
