April 13, 1938 - December 18, 2023

Newfields- Harold D. Pevear Jr., 85, of Newfields, passed away peacefully at his home, surrounded by his loving family, on Monday, December 18, 2023. He was born on April 13, 1938, to the late Harold and Evelyn (Fowler) Pevear of Seabrook, NH. He shared 39 years of marriage with his loving wife Constance (Willis) before her passing in 2020.

Raised in Seabrook, Harold attended Seabrook schools. Following high school graduation, he went on to study at the University of New Hampshire for a time. While enrolled at UNH, he tested at the local ROTC center, which resulted in the army enlisting him for work in military intelligence. He served his country honorably for 22 years. After his time in the Army, he began work as an apprentice electrician at the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard and went on to work for Heidelberg Harris until his retirement at the age of 70.

He met his wife Constance when she was working as a private nurse in Exeter, caring for Harold's father. After his father warned him about Constance, the couple fell and love and were married.

Harold and Constance were both known to have "green hands". He was an avid gardener and worked tirelessly tending to the beautiful flowers on his property. He loved birdwatching the many varieties of birds that visited his home. He greatly enjoyed making his own bread, and keeping up on current events, reading local newspapers, and watching FOX news.

Surviving family members include his stepchildren Susan Carney of Newfields and Steven Carney of Newmarket and their siblings Denise A. Carney, Michael R. Carney, and Pamela G. Fenoff. He also leaves grandchildren Mathew, Ryan, Michael, and Kira Carney, Adam Beck, Carolyn and Jessica Soto, Alexandra LeClair and Reyer Fenoff, and great grandchildren Demitri Garza, Elle and Roweck Soto, and Levi and Caden LeClair, and his brother Robert Pevear.
