Harold was born on September 9, 1935 in Newburyport, MA. He was educated in Newburyport, MA. Following his schooling he joined the Navy in 1952. On leave Harold met his wife Dorothy (Devinish) of Ipswich on a blind date and they married in 1953. His nickname Al came from that first date that he used Al as his name for some reason, unknown to anyone but him. He had 5 girls, Pam, Cathy, Linda, Carol and Patty.

He was employed as a supervisor in many manufacturing companies in the local area and finally retired from the Seabrook School system as head custodian. He also worked several years as a part time Seabrook police officer protecting the local community.

Harold enjoyed cookouts in the yard by the pool with his family. He always had a pool and plenty of kids around to enjoy it. Yearly trips to the NH mountains, Kancamagus Highway and annual trips to Newport Me. In July to visit family. He volunteered his time for many years as a baseball coach for the Seabrook red team that his grandson played on. Harold was a diehard Patriots fan, and never missed a game, good or bad. Harold and brother Larry always enjoyed the competition during the Army Navy football game. He will be dearly missed by his large family and friends.

Harold is survived by his sisters Margorie, Alice, Diane, and Pricilla. He also leaves behind 15 Grandchildren, 25 Great grandchildren, and 4 Great Great Grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his wife Dorothy in 2017 after 64 years of marriage as well as his brothers Larry and Scotty, his granddaughter Tameka in 2021 and his great grandson Tyler in 2001.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the Schrempf family. It's never easy losing a loved one, but this is just a see you later, not a goodbye. Your dad served our Country in many ways, and now he going to get his rewards up in Heaven, and he is with your mom, and all the other family and friends that I'm sure were there to greet him with open arms. Heaven is rejoicing, my love to you all, Liz
