“ To Pat and Julie and all of Harold’s large family and friends... My sincere condolences on the passing of Harold. He was a good man and I’ve known him for nearly 40 years, as he was a consistent member of the Marelli coffee boys. A handyman at nature, he provided an assisting hand when needed to all of his friends and neighbors. With a lending hand and good nature, and a hardy laugh, he will be missed by everyone who knew him. He dearly loved his Pat and Julie and especially enjoyed their celebrations of lobster on his birthdays. May he rest in the arms of our Lord and may you find comfort in your memories. Love, Marcia Hannon-Buber
