

Helen DiFilippo

February 7, 1924 - December 5, 2013

Exeter – Helen DiFilippo, 89, of Exeter, formerly of Hampton, died Thursday, December 5, 2013 at Langdon Place surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Everett, Mass., February 7, 1924, the daughter of the late Guy and Phyllis (Gitano) Alibrandi. She found her true love in Michael DiFilippo, her husband for 54 years before his passing in 2001.

Helen lived life to its fullest and was known for her vibrant smile and exceptional sense of humor. She was a naturally funny woman and her spontaneous comments about almost anything would leave her friends and family in stitches. Helen was the ultimate homemaker who loved cooking and decorating, while raising her two children, Carol and Mickey. She joined her husband in establishing Emco Sales Company in 1966, a successful food brokerage firm, where she worked with him until 1983. Helen had a special love for animals and was a devoted advocate of the SPCA. She not only loved exercising, tennis, and playing cards with her close friends, but traveled the world with her husband Michael. She focused her love and affection on her family, especially her grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

Left to cherish her memory, Helen is survived by her daughter Carol Accetta and her husband Frank, son Michael and his wife Karen, granddaughter Trisha Perin and her husband Jimmy, and grandson David Hersey and his wife Eris. Helen passes on her love to her 5 great grandchildren, Kassidy, Nicole, and Alexis Perin and Cameron and Cierra Hersey.

In addition to her parents, Helen was predeceased by her brother, Vico Alibrandi.

A celebration of her life will be held at Remick & Gendron Funeral Home – Crematory, 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton, between 11 A.M. and 1 P.M. Monday, December 9, 2013. A prayer service will follow the visitation starting at 1:00 P.M. in the funeral home. Burial will be in the High Street Cemetery, Hampton. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers, donations to Helen's favorite charity, the NH S.C.P.A., P.O. Box 196, Stratham, NH 03885.

“ Helen was my great grandmother. I love her

“ I met Helen when I worked at Home Depot in North Hampton. She just moved into her condo at the Vineyards, and needed a storm door. After I helped her with that we talked a bit, as it turns out she knew my brother Kevin who helped build her condo. I talked with my brother later that day... we talked about Helen. We both had the same thoughts about her....very nice lady, very funny, and a pleasure to know! She will certainly be remembered by us. My sympathies to Helen's family.

“ Carol & Family, I remember your mother for her unconditional love she gave my teenage daughter, whom she hired as a dog walker for Abby, while living at the Vineyards. As Helen was fond of giving Abby extra food and treats, she had a well-stocked pantry of snacks for her grandchildren and my daughter Alex. We will always remember her love for Abby, and her kindness.

“ It was with great sadness that I heard of Helen's passing. She was a wonderful person. Had a great sense of humor and loved her family. She also loved her dog Abby. I enjoyed seeing her at family gatherings and sharing stories about our dogs. I know her children, grand children, and great grandchildren will miss her terribly. My prayers are with them all in their time of grief. Rest in peace Helen. Your suffering is over. Domenic

“ Helen was the nicest, happiest person. She and Mike were dedicated customers of our family and she always made our day brighter when ever she came in. You were very blessed to have such a wonderful woman in your lives for so many years. Hoping one of you inheirited her charming and selfless personality. They don't make many like her anymore..... <3
