Hampton – Helen Stephanie Gibadlo, 94, a long-time Hampton resident, passed away on February 24, 2018 at Webster at Rye.

She was born at home on July 18, 1923 in Clinton, MA to Stanislaw Kulis and Mary (Voskeirs) Kulis. Helen graduated from Lowell High School (Class of 1942) and was subsequently the sole proprietor of Helen's Beauty Shop of Lowell.

In her youth, she enjoyed dancing, visiting Hampton beach with her girlfriends, and bowling – taking home many trophies for her efforts. She met her future husband, Robert, at the Polish National Home in Lawrence, MA where they enjoyed dancing, conversation, and authentic Polish food as was accustomed to their heritage.

Her married life with Robert began on October 28, 1951 and lasted for 62 years until Robert's death in 2013. During this time, Helen was in charge of the household helping raise four children and providing invaluable love and nurturing to her two oldest grandchildren. She was longtime member of Portsmouth Country Club and could often be seen early in the season traveling the links with her gal pals; Betty Page, Theresa Ryan, and Peg Seavey. During her Monday night golf league, she left her husband in charge of providing dinner for her family, and after returning home, would be amused by the secret ingredients that he had placed into the center of the meat loaf.

Prior to her husband's retirement in 1986, Helen and Bob began a number of memorable adventures which took them to Hawaii, Spain, Bangkok and the island of Phuket. After retiring, Bob and Helen enjoyed winters in Myrtle Beach, SC where they played golf and expanded upon their network of friends. They were active promoters of the Grasshoppers of New Hampshire for a number of years.

Survivors include her daughter Donna (husband Terry Harvey) of Greenland, sons; Robert of Hampton, Richard (wife Sharen) of Hampton, and Donald of Hampton, grandchildren; Cari Bourn of Stratham, Emily, Daniella & Darren Gibadlo of Hampton, Chad Gibadlo of Concord, NH, and greatgrandchildren; Hailee Gibadlo of Amesbury MA, Audrey, Austin & Gabriel Bourn of Stratham, and Ella Gibadlo of Exeter.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 am on Friday, April 6, 2018 at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Church, 289 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. Burial will be with her husband, Robert in the High Street Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to a local charity of one's choice.

“ *Donna and Terry,
We are so sorry that your mom has passed. You have given so much of your time and your heart to her. She was very lucky to have you and I'm sure she knew that.*

*Our love and sympathy,

“ Oh! Sweet Helen, How blessed I was to see your beautiful smile every Saturday morning when my husband I would come to visit some of our friends at Webster @ Rye. I was always greeted by your bright eyes and you always the warmest smile .That made you feel like I was at home.Greeted everyone with your love.Funny thing is I looked for you on Saturday, and thought she is off some where making some ones day.Neither did I know that God had called you home. Your last breath here and the firs breath was in Heaven with God and all his Angels. So yes, you were off making someones day, not here, but with God and all your blessed loved ones who were waiting for you to come home,So jealous of the Angels that are gathered around your throne.So, sweet lady Helen, may you rest in eturnal peace and my God's Grace and his Mercy be with your family here as they morn their loss. May they find comfort in knowing that you are at peace and well done job here on earth.Many blessings T@ M
