“ I was thinking of you Aunt Polly, at Halloween this past October. For many years, Aunt Polly would come to our home, dress up in her Halloween costume, and greet he neighborhood children at our door to hand out candy. She loved this! One year, she dressed up like a ghost, and dimmed the lights to the door where she gave the candy out. She had a string tied to the door handle, and would sit 10 feet inside the door. When the doorbell rang, she would tug the string, the door would open, and there in the chair would be a ghost (Aunt Polly), with a candy bucket for the children to dare to come into our kitchen and get there Halloween candy. Oh what fun! We really loved watching her enjoy Halloween. I think of you often. May you rest in peace. Love Tim & Donna

“ This photo of A. Polly was taken last year at the Deerfield Fair. What a wonderful day we had!! Especially when Aunt Polly shared with me all the great times she had going with her family as a child, and then going with U. Bud when they married. It was the hottest day, and we were both dressed for winter. We filled up on ice-cream, which was one of A. Polly's FAVORITE desserts! RIP "sweet Polly purebred". Love you and miss you! Carlene
