“ I remember a cook out over Jackie way back. Helen hardly ever drank, she did this day. Her and Jackie were singing to an old song then she was dancing with Bill in the back yard. She was laughing having a ball. Nana (Rosalie) even had a drink. I had so much fun just watching them enjoy themselves so much. Helen spoke up said Bill," I think we should go now". Nana said me too. Bill had to walk both of them over to Nana's, one on each arm. All we could hear was giggling all the way over to Nana's like teenage girls. I miss all the times we had together and they all are very much missed in my heart. Im sorry for your loss of wonderful people and lots of wonderful memories. Helen was a wonderful lady to be around. My prayers go out to you all.
