“ My mom Katherine was Ed Hyder's sister. I'm one of Katherine's daughters. As my brother says, "Ida was a great lady". She was fun, witty, always charming and always looked great. She not only took good care of my Uncle Ed, but Ida was wonderful to my grandfather and Uncle Mitch too. She laughed so easily and always made us feel welcome when visiting their home. Ida had a special voice, a drawl that was uniquely hers. I'll miss her.
