“ I haven't seen Irene in many years. We were in the same quilt guild in Ohio. When I saw her photo my first thought was how kind she was and always smiling, she made me feel she really was happy to see me - good memory to leave behind. My sincere sympathy to her family and friends.

What a good lady. Irene, join our family when marrying Bob. However haven't seen or been in contact with my cousins (their children or Bob's) for decades. I always loved how Irene smiled and was the heart of her family. May she rest in peace and prayers for all family and friends.
