“ When I first left "small town home" to the "big city college" I often visited the Glennon cousins in Hingham. We were familiar with each other, visiting summers and I'd stay at the camp a few nights with them in past years. Visiting in Hingham felt like "going home" in some way. Cousins wanted to be sure I felt at home so they made me do dishes!!! I'm forever grateful for the comforts of those visits and the closeness with such a wonderful cousin family. Tante Jackie was also a gracious role model. Her laughter, joy, pragmatic outlook, and generosity just exuded the Christianity we aspire to live! What a grand reunion for her to join her son, her parents, her siblings (including my Mom, Bernice) and the love of her life, Uncle Dick! Sharing both sympathy for loss and privilege for having her in our lives. You've earned your eternal rest, Tante Jackie!
