

Jacquelyn W. Clark

January 28, 1923 - April 13, 2013

Rye Beach – Jacquelyn W. Clark, 90, of Rye Beach and Tucson, Ariz., died Saturday, April 13, 2013 at Landon Place of Dover following a long battle with Alzheimer's disease.

She was born in Des Moines, Iowa January 28, 1923 the daughter of the late Harold F. and Ethel G. (Gliffe) Woodyatt.

Mrs. Clark was raised in Chicago, Ill., attended the University of Arizona and in her earlier years modeled at Marshall Fields, Chicago and later in New York and Tucson. She was also an accomplished artist, painting in oils, acrylics and water colors. She was extremely artistic, enjoyed decorating and had a keen sense for colors.

She summered at Rye Beach since 1978 and was a long-time resident of Tucson.

She was the wife of the late Thomas T. Clark, Jr. who served as president of Tucson Newspapers Inc. He predeceased her in 1987.

She leaves her longtime friend and faithful companion, Joseph A. Hammond of North Hampton, two sons, Charles C. Lewis, II of Tucson, Richmond D. Lewis of Santa Fe, NM, two daughters Gay G. Miltenberger of Springfield, Mass., Lorinda L. Bloch of Miami, Fla., and three grandchildren, Charles C. Lewis, III, Clifford G. Scott, W. Judson Miltenberger. She also leaves five great grandchildren.

Private services will be held in Tucson. The family suggests donations to the Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant Street, Watertown, MA 02472 or to a charity of one's choice. Local arrangements are by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton.

“ *Dear Gay, I will always remember your mother for her broad smile and standing up for what she thought was right. She was always a delight to be with and made me feel better for having been with her. It is wonderful that you had her for so many years. Warm Regards.
