

James M. Hurley

May 2, 1957 - September 27, 2013

Hampton – James M. “Jim” Hurley, 56, of Hampton, died suddenly, Friday, September 27, 2013 at his home.

He was born in Hillsborough on May 2, 1957 and was one of nine children of Nora (Guidi) Hurley of Rochester and the late George W. Hurley.

He graduated from Oyster River High School with the Class of 1975 and from the University of New Hampshire with a degree in business in 1981.

Jim was an entrepreneur in the printing field and owned and operated Printplace, Print New Hampshire, and currently LifeSize Wraps.

He made his home in Hampton since 1985, loved spending summers in Wyoming, and enjoyed horseback riding, fishing, hunting and the outdoors with his family. He was a longtime member and supporter of Ducks Unlimited.

In addition to his mother, he leaves his devoted wife with whom he shared 28 wonderful years of marriage, Lynn Howard Hurley, his three loving sons, Michael, Daniel and Travis Hurley all of Hampton, his siblings, Marie Misiaszek, George, Bill, Nancy Galvin, Annette Tuttle, Carolyn, Ken, and Glenn, as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Visiting hours will be from 6-8 P.M. Friday, October 4, 2013 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 10 A.M. Saturday, October 5, 2013 at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Church, 289 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers the family suggests donation to Easter Seals of New Hampshire, Attn: Development Dept., 555 Auburn Street, Manchester, NH 03103.

“ Sincere condolences for your loss. Cherish loving memories of laughter and times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. The death of someone we love dearly can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken, but Psalm 34:18 "Jehovah is near to those who are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves". Revelation 21:4 assures us that soon death will be no more, and Acts 24:15 holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. May this bring you a measure of comfort at this time.

“ Travis - Your father always had something positive to say, was so willing to give of his time, and uplifted the spirits of all around him. It was so nice to see his huge smile whenever he talked about you; he was so proud of you! He is already greatly missed. Our deepest condolences to you, your mother, and your brothers. - Walter, Stephanie, Sarah & Brian Coffen

“ *Dear Lynn, boys and extended Hurley family,
We are shocked and saddened for all of you and you are in our thoughts and prayers. I have many colorful memories of Jim growing up and I will hold them close to my heart. We wish you all strength and peace and know that Jim will guide you all home. Our apologies that we must be in Chicago and will miss the services, but we send our love and hugs to each of you.
Much love,
Sue (Guidi) and Bill Dangora*

“ Travis, one of the first things I thought of was that I was so glad to have witnessed the pride I saw in both your parents the night of your 8th grade graduation. Your dad especially was beaming after your speech. I can tell he was such a wonderful dad because you are such a great person with so much to give and share with the world. Though he had to go far too soon, I am so glad you had the gift of such a wonderful father and know you will carry him with you. Our most sincere condolences to Lynne, Michael and Dan too. Please know we will help in whatever way we can. Jen, Steve, Ryan and Caelie.

“ Travis, Your dad will always have a very special place in my memories. The sincerity and respect with which he treated everyone he met was an exceptional thing. Trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind... These are the words that describe who your father chose to be. You could instantly see in his eyes how very proud he was of you whenever you were around him. We will always be here for you, your mother, and your brothers whenever you need us. “ Michael and I have wonderful memories of Jim from our association with Print NH. He was a kind and compassionate man with a heart of gold. His smile was infectious. He ran a great business and his customers loved working with Jim. He bent over backwards to service his customers. He was a great supporter of many important causes and always gave back to the community. He will be sadly missed. Our sincere Condolences to the Hurley family. God Bless, Michael and Ina Castagna
