“ I have had the Privilege of Knowing Jimmy since I was Knee High to a Grasshopper. He was friend of my father and many others in The Seabrook Beach Community. A fixture of His Beloved Beach 🌴. It wasn't Summer unless you saw him in His Corvette top down and music blasting. Or going to The Tuna Striker Pub on Sunday afternoon for a RumRunner 🍹 and one of his legendary stories of his time in Florida's Keys. Jimmy you'll be Missed Greatly! Godspeed 🌴🍹🌅☺️👉👍

Harv i'm gonna miss you brother I remember 50 years ago when we used to clean up the bars in Salisbury Beach having fun looking out over the beach into the water as we got the places ready to open. Those were fun times and the turf and surf were two of many, I also remember you visiting me in Tampa Florida on a few occasions once was when you were moving limousines from Boston to Key West and you use my home as a stop off before you went to the keys again good times and then back to the beach Seabrook beach, growing those huge butternut squash in your garden out doing Rocky winds it's with great sadness that I think of you as a friend of more than 50 years so many many times we had so much fun . You help my brother, Todd, and his time of despair, which I'll never forget. You were also such a great plumber, helping me with the water heater on Pembroke Street and you even signed it installed by Harv. Many memories of the tuna striker watching you 10 bar with your Hawaiian shirt on putting a smile on everyone's face and always having a joke you had such a gift of making people happy. Love you, Jim, Doug Walsh.

Jimmy, you will be deeply missed and always loved by me and many others. You are forever the Tom Selleck of the Beach. Karina (from the good ole' days when DiBurro's just turned Seabrook Village Market and I was there on a daily basis). With love and many, many hugs.
