“ Our Darling Brad is so missed. He was the son (in-law) any parents would be proud and happy to have in their family. He was always so willing to help out and to be a son and friend to all of our family. He was one of the most intelligent, understanding and loving individuals God ever created. We have loved him from the first time he showed up to date our daughter Terri. They had a beautiful marriage and if two people were ever destined to be together, it was Brad and Terri. They had more excitement and happiness in their 30 years together than most people experience in a lifetime. Rest with the Lord our son. We miss you every second of every day.

“ As fellow submarine officers in section D at Harvard Business School, Brad and I shared a bond in the transition from the Navy wardroom to the corporate boardroom. Brad was smart, friendly and a man of high integrity.

My thoughts and prayers are with Terri, and with Brad's family and friends.

“Brad was and will always remain one of my closest friends. I had the honor to serve under Brad's command in the US Navy Reserves. He quickly became one of my closest friends and a personal and professional mentor for over 20-years. I enjoyed numerous activities with Brad including biking, running, swimming, doing business, watching his magic tricks, losing to him in chess....every time, trying to find the best cheese steak sub in New Hampshire and just spending time together.

I am deeply saddened by Brad's passing and quite frankly having a bit of a hard time (Brad is not pleased with me at the moment I am sure....I keep hearing him tell me he trained me better).

I am, however, thankful for the amazingly full life Brad lived. By my reckoning he fit at least four lifetimes of accomplishment, adventure and fun into his years. He was also blessed to have had the opportunity to share much of his life with his soul mate Terri.

His was a life well lived.

Fair winds and following seas my friend.....until we meet again.

All our love,

“ Dear McGee family. Please accept My profound sympathy and prayers for your tragic loss. I first met Brad when he came to TYCO in the early 1990's. He was one of the most intelligent people I have ever had the privilege of meeting.

To this day I have in my office a book of matches from the Presidential Air Force One 747 given to me by Brad and although I did not have the opportunity to see Brad after I retired when I look at it I thought of him. May he rest in peace and may you find solice in your fond memories of Brad.

My condolences for the loss of your loved one, Brad. My memories are from long ago as I went to elementary, middle and high school with him (Carmel, NY). My memories are of a lively, engaging and energizing young person; I remember him as a part of a group of stunningly intelligent "regular guys," ...approachable and friendly ...I wasn't surprised to learn recently of his many accomplishments and passions in his "grown-up" life. Over time, I'm hoping that his personality and deep passions for love & life, will overshadow the loss of this present moment. Again, so sorry for your loss and may he rest in peace.

Please accept my condolences and the condolences of the rest of 5th Co, US Naval Academy Class of 1980. Without a doubt Brad was one of the smartest men I have ever met. Beyond that, he was one of the world's kindest. A memory that I've held particularly dear for 36 years happened during the break between finals and graduation week our 2/c year. Brad invited me to join him and his family at Cape Cod. Staying with his family, Aesop's Table, Provincetown, getting sunburned on the beach... Rest in peace, my Shipmate and Classmate. You were a gift from God to those who lucky to have known you.

I walked the beach with Brad and our dogs,..Casey and Bode. Our conversations were always lively and enjoyable, sharing our lives and enthusiasm for life. Greeting me in the morning with his perpetual smile, together we took solace in watching the sun rise over the ocean while getting our fix of exercise. My heartfelt condolences in your loss of Brad. Dear Terri - My thoughts and prayers are with you and the entire McGee family. You and Brad were the greatest of neighbors a new family could ask for. Time spent discussing running and cycling with Brad - exciting. In fact, Brad alerted me to the fact that I had gained entry into the Boston Marathon. Brad was a warm, genuine, dedicated gentleman - I am so sorry for your loss. Janet Stevens

I just learned of Brad's passing. So sad. Brad worked for me as a consultant for several years after Harvard, and we were in touch from time to time since. Truly an outstanding person, and one of the best employees I've ever had. His optimistic, can-do attitude was infectious, and he always got the job done. He did not always choose the well-travelled path, but wherever he went he built success. He will truly be missed. Our sympathies to Terri and his immediate family.
