

Jane P. Kilcoyne

July 25, 1935 - August 7, 2024

Rye - Jane Power Kilcoyne, 89, a longtime Seacoast resident, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 7, 2024, at Webster at Rye. She was born on July 25, 1935, in Dorchester, MA, the daughter of the late Joseph and Margaret (Leary) Power. Jane shared 56 years of marriage with her loving husband, James R. Kilcoyne Sr., until his passing in 2021.

Raised in Flushing, Queens, Jane was a graduate of St. Agnes Academic High School. She pursued higher education with determination, earning a bachelor's degree from St. John's University in 1957, followed by a master's degree from the University of Southern Maine, and both a master's and a doctorate from Harvard University.

Jane went on to have an extensive and rewarding career in higher education and consulting, and served on the boards of many executive and charitable organizations.

A devoted member of the St. Theresa Church community in Rye Beach, Jane cherished her time serving there. She was also a past president of the Rye Art Study Group and an active member of the Rye Beach Club and Portsmouth Yacht Club. Jane had a deep love for art, antiques, and crossword puzzles--passions that reflected her vibrant spirit.

Jane will be remembered for her kindness, energy, and enthusiasm. She was a strong supporter of women's rights and a champion for equality, leaving behind a legacy of advocacy and compassion.

Jane is survived by her children, James R. Kilcoyne, Jr. and his wife Becky Koch of Montclair, NJ, and Julia C. Kilcoyne and her husband Kevin Farrington of Watertown, MA. She was a proud grandmother to her two grandsons, Henry Joseph and William Power Kilcoyne of Montclair, NJ. Jane was also the beloved aunt to many nieces and nephews and served as a mother figure to many who will miss her dearly.

In addition to her husband, Jane was predeceased by her dear sisters Nancy McLaughlin and Margaret Fitzmaurice.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated for Jane at St. Theresa Church in Rye Beach at 11 AM on August 14th, followed by her interment at St. Andrew's By-The-Sea Churchyard in Rye Beach. Reception to follow at the Abeniqui Country Club

Cemetery Details

St. Andrews by the Sea Cemetery

Rye Beach, NH

Previous Events

Mass of Christian Burial

AUG 14. 11:00 AM (ET)

St. Theresa Church
815 Central Rd
Rye Beach, NH 03871
(603) 964-6440

Tribute Wall

AS

“ I remember, approximately 30 years ago, learning for the first time that Auntie Carol Kilcoyne's real name was Jane And I can still see her beautiful smile as she told me this news. Aunt Carol was always full of surprises In the best way possible. She was my mother's maid of honor in 1958 and was a steadfast, loving, Christ- centered woman of Faith. An incredible friend, and advisor to me, godmother to my sister, Elizabeth, and, for over 70 years a dear and loving "sister" by choice to my mother, Joanne Reilly Hughes. She left her beautiful mark on our hearts.

Allison Hughes Stanton - August 14, 2024 at 03:01 PM

JK

Thank you so much, Allison. She was truly special, and I treasure this picture of her and your mom and dad. xoxo

Julia Kilcoyne - August 16, 2024 at 03:13 PM

JT

Rest in God's Love, Jane. The Terravecchia family, Chester NH.

John Terravecchia - August 19, 2024 at 05:07 PM

TF

“ The Maples Family purchased the Crystal Cross Bouquet for the family of Jane P. Kilcoyne.

The Maples Family - August 13, 2024 at 10:30 AM

DB

“ As a nurse at Webster At Rye, I feel truly blessed to have known & cared for Jane. Jane was always such a bright light, an inspiration! When we had students, Jane loved to share her history with them and helped to teach & encourage them. Jane was truly an amazing women who loved her family & so many others. She felt grateful for the life she had, felt she was blessed. You were easy to Love Jane, I miss you everyday! Denise B

Denise Batchelder - August 12, 2024 at 08:15 PM