“ Always willing to bring a favorite dish to family gatherings and a good cook.I loved your quirky sense of humor.I remember how much you enjoyed the chocolate fountain at Tim and Amelia's wedding.;)
We grieved together after losing our beloved dogs so close together. You had a big heart for animals,especially dogs. The world is a sadder place because you're no longer in it.You were loved and will be greatly missed.
Love and God Bless,
Jennifer (Small) Herlihy
My prayers go up for your children and grandchild.

“ was very sorry to read about Janeann's passing. She was a very nice neighbor and even though our dogs didnt see eye to eye she was wonderful with my Sammie. I will always remember her kindness and all the wonderful treats she made for Sammie and the times she came to the house to take her out for a walk . She was a very thoughtful woman. My sincerest condolences to her family. Pam Abbott -i lived right across from her in Hillcrest until about 1 1/2 years ago.
