

Janice M. Kelley

June 24, 1935 - August 11, 2013

Hampton - Janice M. Kelley, 78, of Hampton, formerly of Naples, FL and Quincy, Mass., died peacefully after a courageous battle against breast cancer, Sunday, August 11, 2013 in the presence of family.

She was born in Boston, Mass., June 24, 1935 a daughter of the late Robert L. and MaryAlice (Hurly) Lee, grew up in Charlestown, Mass., and raised her daughters in Quincy, Mass., where she resided for over 40 years.

Jan received her BA from UMass/Boston in 1983, and went on to receive three Master's degrees in education at both Leslie College and UMass/Boston. Ms. Kelley was a Boston Public School teacher, retiring in 2003. After retiring, Jan resided in Naples and loved being a Floridian. She relocated to Hampton in 2013.

She was a lifelong learner, with a passion for reading and studying. She studied astrology for fifty years, and was proud to be co-founding member of the Boston Chapter of the National Council for Geocosmic Research. Jan held a broad spectrum of beliefs, and was a Theosophist. She thoroughly enjoyed being a mother and grandmother. As a teacher, she was able to spend time each summer enjoying her grandchildren.

She is survived by her children, Judy Beers and partner Scott Whitten of Lake

Park, FL, Nancy Serpis and husband Greg of Hampton, Stacey Tirabassi and husband Edmund of South Boston, Mass; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren; sister Barbara Donovan; sister in-law Betty Lee and former spouse Paul Kelley.

In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her siblings, Helen Lee, Robert Lee, Jr., Claire Tims, Thomas Lee, and David Lee.

In honor of Jan's wishes, a private celebration of life will be held in September. Jan's family would like to thank everyone for all their thoughts and prayers that have been expressed. In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 22718, Oklahoma City, OK 73123. Assistance with arrangements was by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton.
