

Jasmine Rose Marston

February 4, 1995 - June 17, 2017

Newmarket – Jasmine Rose Marston, 22, of Newmarket, died Saturday, June 17, 2017 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident in Brentwood.

She was born in Longmont, Colorado on February 4, 1995 and was raised in Brentwood. She attended Cooperative Middle School in Stratham, and graduated from Great Bay E Learning Charter School, in Exeter with the Class of 2013.

Jasmine enjoyed her jobs with Meandering Path Landscaping and Las Olas Taqueria, both in Exeter. She had a passion for music, concerts, festivals and gardening. She was an activist for animal rights and driving safety. While in high school, she directed an award-winning seatbelt awareness film that is still being used in schools throughout the world. Jasmine was a much beloved friend to many because of her love of fun, compassion for others and ability not to take herself too seriously!

She leaves her mother April Rose Marston and her partner Keith Metcalfe of Exeter; father, Grant Johnson of Longmont, Colorado; maternal grandfather, Floyd Marston of Exeter, sister, Zayna Rose Marston of Exeter, brother, Joseph Prisby of Bradford, Massachusetts; her beloved nephew, Shawn Perkins, Jr; uncles Edward and Floyd Marston, Jr.; and several aunts, uncles and cousins. Additionally, she leaves her roommates Emma Stone and Alisha

Levasseur, along with many dear friends including Melanie MacDonald and Meghan McPartland.

She was predeceased by her maternal grandmother, Alice (Welch) Marston.

Visiting hours will from 5-8 P.M. Wednesday, June 21, 2017 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Services will be held at 11 A.M. Thursday in the funeral home. Burial will follow in the Hillside Cemetery, Seabrook. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. “ Jasmine was my neighbor for as short time, her mom still is.. One late summer afternoon I was over to her moms and this sweet beautiful girl and one of her friends welcomed me over to wait for her mom to get back. I sat with them, my kiddo running around and we spoke of Karate as Alyssa was doing that at the time..I was sharing my frustration of how my kiddo often drives me crazy.. stubbornness.. walks to the beat of her own drum etc,, .I remember conversing with her about my daughter. I said sometimes she drives me crazy and walks to the beat of her own drum.. Jasmine said she is pretty chill and a cool kid.. dont ever take her beat away from her.. It is what makes her unique and makes her .. her.. She is a good kid, let her be who she is..I get you you have to do all the mom stuff but her uniqueness is what makes her so awesome.. You will get through it..my mom did.. :) You dont always get wisdom or the best of advice from elders... She, on that night.. helped me to well "be chill" in regards to my kiddo.. who is now 10. I didn't get to see a lot of her after she moved from her moms.. but when I did.. it was always a bright spot in my day. Such a huge loss. Thank you for letting me know you Jasmine. Thank you.

“ My daughter, Kelly was a mentor to Jasmine, through the Big Sister Program when Jasmine was 12. Together they did many fun activities and she visited my home on numerous occasions with my daughter. Jasmine and her mother also attended my daughter's wedding in 1977. I remember Jasmine as a very sweet, polite and quiet young lady. Very pretty as well. Approximately 4 days ago Kelly and I were together driving and Kelly pointed out a spot where Jasmine lived back then and ironically we reminisced about her for a few minutes. Tragically, two days later I saw the sad news that this lovely young woman had perished in a car accident. My daughter was deeply affected by the news as was I. It is unfortunate that we had to find out the wonderful person Jasmine had grown up to be by her untimely death. Our hearts go out to her family and I prayed for Jasmine at this past Sunday's Mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.
Sincerely, Cynthia Symmonds

correction, above. The wedding I was referring to was in 2007 not 1977! Anyway, Jasmine was a sweetheart and we are sick at heart over this. Kelly Jasmine's wake now and I am sure she is in tears.....

“ I remember when you girls were little. She was such a bright little light. Always happy. I remember the day she was born. April looked like she had just won the lottery. Such beautiful, perfect children. I had so much fun with you both. I'm so sorry, Zayna. I'll never ever forget that million watt smile of hers. It was there from the minute she was born, and will live forever with all that loved her.
