

Jean L. Harrison

July 24, 1926 - August 25, 2021

Rye - Jean Lukeman Harrison of Rye, NH, world traveler, book lover, writer, community activist and modern mother of five, “Mim” to nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, died peacefully on August 25, 2021 at the age of 95 after a short illness. Her husband Leo predeceased her in 2015.

“Prairie Girl” grew up in rural Illinois, completed her Bachelor’s Degree at the College of St. Francis, then fell in love with a young dentist and moved to Rye, NH, where she taught art while raising her children and planning her many trips around the globe. Jean had a love of the arts and an appreciation for classical music and took full advantage of her iPad to always keep in touch with family and friends to the end. She left a legacy of strength, wit, dedication and faith to guide those she left behind.

Services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations in Jean’s memory can be made to: OLMM Outreach Program, 289 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH 03842 or Seacoast Youth Services (<https://www.seacoastyouthservices.org>), 867 Lafayette Road, Seabrook, NH 04874, online: .

Tribute Wall

“ Jean L. Harrison

September 18, 2022 at 12:49 AM

“ I'm sorry to hear of the passing of Jean. My condolences to the whole family and I will keep this lovely lady in my prayers along with the whole family during this journey. God Bless you all !

Grace Maxfield - September 01, 2021 at 09:48 PM

“ Jean and my mother Elizabeth Freiburg Burke were classmates and lifelong friends. On behalf of my mother, now 94, and the Burke family, i'd like to extend my condolences to the Harrison family and to let you all know that mom loved Jean throughout her life and is mourning her loss to this day. They had such a wonderful life as friends, with multiple trips overseas thanks to Jean's travel expertise. What a full and wonderful life, and more important, what a loving and good friend that Jean was throughout my mother's life. In my opinion, no more fitting a tribute can be made to another human being. We can only wish to have such a loyal life lifelong friend. A rare gift. Thank you.

Bill Burke and the extended Burke family

Bill Burkw - August 31, 2021 at 05:01 PM

“ Condolences to the family. My mother also died this year at 95.

Brian Powell - August 30, 2021 at 10:42 AM