Its so surreal, you are no longer here to guide me , as you know from looking down on all of us , sat was my 25th birthday.... not having you here to spend it with me , sucks ..... but I know even tho you are not physically here you will always be here to guide me , until the bitter sweet day we meet again ..... I love you nannie , and want you to know that you made a huge impact on my life and made me the woman I am today. And for that I am forever grateful in so many ways . Love you banana xoox

“ The following message is from Patricia Beekes via Nancy Boynton:

Lorraine was the baby girl within our family, she and I were the youngest of six children. We shared many years of laughter and fulfilled days with our brother and sisters. For over a period of eighty years I was lucky enough to call Jean Lorraine Murray Williams my little sister. She will be missed. My deepest sympathy to her children and grandchildren for the loss of their wonderful mother. Love, Auntie Pat

“ I am so saddened by the loss of Auntie Lorraine. She was a lovely woman in every way and one of the best role models to enter my life. I will always be grateful to her for the many gifts she has given me in the way of family values; and the love and laughter we have shared over a period of fifty something years. She will be missed by each generation she has touched with her delightful sense of humor and remarkable wisdom and unique charm. God bless each and everyone of my beautiful cousins, you all have my deepest sympathy for this profound loss. Although it hurts to lose such a wonderful woman from your life; know that she is with her beloved sisters and brother right now, it brings me peace to think of her that way...probably having a cup of tea and chatting about her children and grandchildren. I love you, Susie baby, Pammy, Stevie, Mark and Ronnie...take care.

Love,

Cousin Nancy Boynton (a Murray girl from way back!!)

“ My Nana Sunshine,

You absolutely are my sunshine, you always lit up my day. You cared for me, you cared for us all and we are better people because of it. I will absolutely cherish every memory I have of you. I'd do anything for one last hug and kiss but I know your always with me nana, all I need to do is close my eyes and I see you with your feet up watching TV and enjoying your hot cup of tea. I'll always see you in my memory and always feel you in my heart. You are my inspiration.
