

Jeannie W. Huddell

November 27, 1924 - February 17, 2020

Hampton - Jeannie W. Huddell, 95, passed away peacefully on Monday, February 17, 2020 at the Oceanside Center in Hampton. She was born in Chelsea, MA on November 27, 1924, a daughter of the late James and Jean (Davis) Walker. Jeannie was predeceased by her husband, Arthur S Huddell, Jr. and her daughter Patricia A Huddell.

Jeannie graduated from Chelsea High School in 1943 and worked at S. S. Pierce Grocery in Boston until her marriage to Arthur. Later moving to Hampton Falls, Jeannie enjoyed playing bridge and working as a seamstress for the Hay Loft, MacDormand's Menswear and for Stan Brown at Hampton Coach.

She leaves four children, Marilyn Kirk, Marian I. Emery and her husband David, daughter Randa Emery Blair and her husband Erin, James A. Huddell and his son Jared and Laurie A Huddell and her husband, Anthony Amato and their daughter Francesca J Amato. Jeannie is also survived by her sister, May Vuillimier and was predeceased by her brother, Hugh Walker.

Mom will be missed by her family for all her kindness, generosity and love.

We would like to thank the nurses, aides, and staff at Oceanside Center and Compassus Hospice for their care and love for Jeannie over the past 4 years.

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

“ Jeannie W. Huddell

September 18, 2022 at 12:49 AM

“ Jeannie... always a soft voice and a sweet heart. Generous and kind. The memories I have of Jeannie will always be in my heart. May your soul Rest In Peace. Still wishing on my Luckenbooth on the full moon. Love you from Melanie💕💕

Melanie Locke Allen - March 05, 2020 at 08:10 PM