

Jeffrey Scott Bednarz

March 4, 1965 - March 26, 2016

North Hampton – Jeffrey Scott Bednarz, 51, following a period of declining health, died suddenly at home on Saturday, March 26, 2016. He was born in Exeter, NH to Stanley and Barbara (Fil) Bednarz of North Hampton. Jeff was the youngest of two children and graduated from Winnacunnet High in 1983. Jeff went on to earn his B.A. Degree in Business Administration and Philosophy from Colby College in 1987.

Jeff was competitive, talented and passionate. During his school years, Jeff played many sports, but soccer was by far his most favorite. His love of soccer continued long after his playing days ended. He was a fervent Columbus Crew team fan and frequently spent happy days attending their games and events. Jeff spent many days on the slopes of New England ski areas with friends and family. He also enjoyed an occasional day on the golf course or out fishing trying to "catch the big one".

Jeff's talents extended beyond sports. He loved listening to and playing music. His trumpet playing entertained many people through music programs in the schools he attended and playing in local bands. Never one to shy away from a conversation, Jeff also had a talent for storytelling and debating but especially debating. Friends, family members, and the occasional stranger participated in philosophical discussions and lively exchanges with Jeff often lasting into the early morning hours.

Jeff's passion was displayed in many ways. He cared about our environment and especially the seacoast where he lived. He was happiest on the beach and volunteered with several environmental service projects dedicated to the health of New Hampshire beaches. A diabetic since age 8, Jeff followed the search for better treatment and the hope for a cure and was quick to share his experience with others. Following his cancer diagnosis, Jeff meticulously investigated his treatment options and was an active decision maker in his treatment plan. Most of all, Jeff was passionate about living his life on his own terms.

In addition to his parents, Jeff is survived by his brother John Bednarz and his wife Terri and niece, Natalie of Raleigh, NC. Many loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends will miss Jeff's joyful presence.

The family will welcome guests on Monday, April 4 from 11 am to 1 pm in the Remick and Gendron Funeral Home – Crematory, 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. A Prayer Service will follow the visitation beginning at 1 pm at the funeral home. Following the service, interment will be at the Center Cemetery, North Hampton. Family flowers only please. In lieu of flowers, donations are welcome in Jeff's name to the American Diabetes Association, 10 Speen Street- Second Floor, Framingham, MA 01701.

“ My condolences to all. Although it has been Many years since I'd seen Jeff, I considered him one of my childhood friends from Busy Beaver through WHS and the summer soccer camps at Colby. I think of you all (the piano lessons, marching band) whenever I'm in town and going down South Rd. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I first met Jeff when I was in 5th grade and he in 6th... I had a goofy crush on him forever and he was always sweet about it! He was such a nice talented person - I am so sad he is gone. But he's with John now. I hope they are having fun together. Both left our world too soon.

“ My sincere condolences to John (my elementary school & high school classmate) and Mr. & Mrs. Bednarz.
My thoughts are only of good memories that I have of being a neighborhood friend for many years and the wonderful growing up process with good people which I experienced with Jeff. These memories are of meeting at the school bus stop in the mornings and playing all around the area which we lived.
It is obvious to me that I feel the same as many others and for that the Bednarz Family can stay proud of Jeff as I believe they always have and always will.
Only good thoughts & prayers for everyone.

“ Dear Mr & Mrs Bednarz and John;
I am so sorry for your loss, I was shocked to hear of Jeff's passing. I remember how much fun we had in middle school and into high school. Jeff was an amazing friend and everyone loved being around him. I hope knowing he is with John Marshall will bring some comfort. I wish I was closer so I could have attended his funeral.
Your family is in my thoughts and prayers, love to you all.
With loving memories,

I so enjoyed chatting with Jeff over the years as he came in for appointments. He was so knowledgeable about his cancer diagnosis and it became a learning experience for me as well as he freely shared his latest treatment with me. I will miss his upbeat attitude and caring way. “ My deepest sympathies go out to the family and friends of Jeff. It's a terrible tragedy to see someone leave us all too early and for parents to have to do the unthinkable. I last saw Jeff on the back field of WHS when we were in blue gowns and our futures before us. He was an energetic and affable friend who people were drawn to. He had athletic and artistic talents that were the envy of many.

Its clear by the postings on this wall that his infectious personality and talents continued on over the years. We reconnected through Facebook and had a host public policy and life discussions. I am glad that we were able to have the conversations we did and am sad that, for the time being, those dialogues will be on hold.

My prayers are with Jeff and the entire Bednarz family.

“ I don't know why, but out of the blue I was just thinking of Jeff the other day. I have not lived in NH since high school and have had no contact with Jeff or the Bednarz family since the 80s.

I still have some great memories of Jeff. Skiing, soccer, music, and just positive fun. I remember him as a very smart, talented, and kind person. So sad to hear this news and a reminder that life is short.

My best regards to the Bednarz family, all of whom were a positive influence in my life at a young age.

“ To Stan, Barbara, and John,

I am so sad to hear the news of Jeff's passing. I fell out of touch with Jeff after 1982 but saw him a few years back at home in North Hampton. I enjoyed my times with Jeff at WHS. He was a fun loving and energetic force of nature whom everybody liked. Called home so young but now in the presence of the Father in eternity. My thoughts and prayers are for and with you all now at this time of sadness. Rest now and forever in God's peace Jeff.

Sincerely,

“ Mr. And Mrs. Bednarz and John: I am so saddened by this news. I am grateful that I was able to see him and all of you back in October, although under equally sad circumstances. I think Jill truly said it best. When I think of Jeff, I always think of John Marshall as well. They were quite a pair! I will continue to remember them fondly and I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ A few years Jeff's senior (and a classmate of John's), I recall many afternoons on the soccer pitch of WHS with Jeff and remember the good humor and dedicated efforts he brought to each practice, game and, most assuredly, to each teammate. Though it's been many years since I last saw Jeff, I can only imagine that those in his circle reflect the same warmth of spirit and quality of character with which I remember him.

“ To Jeff's Family, I am so sorry to hear of his passing. We worked together at Cabletron. Sat beside each other and he was always trying to make me laugh when I was trying to be serious on the phone. What a sense of humor, a smile that would not quit, and a devilish laugh. He was such a pleasure to work with. He came to our "mini-reunion" in November of 2015 and that is unfortunately the last time I saw him. I will hold tight to that memory. God Speed Jeff, we are all better for having you in our life.

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Jeff's passing. Our friendship started at Colby College, and continued after that, and he was our best man at my wedding in 1988. I will always remember Jeff's infectious laugh, his wise and irreverent take on the world, and his deep loyalty to his friends. He had a true gift for telling stories that were hilariously funny, and which described the situation perfectly so you felt you could have been there. He also was an incredible friend. I know that his love of music came from his family, and he was very proud of his father's role at his high school and his family's support while growing up. He himself was also a talented musician, and I hope that music continued to bring him comfort and peace during his illness. Although we lost touch over the years, I will always remember Jeff's wonderful laugh, and will cherish the memory of his friendship.

“ To John & Family...
I know the heartache that you feel. Through what you shared of Jeff's recent hardship and life challenges, I came to know Jeff to be an intelligent man, rich with talent who was certainly his own person. Most importantly, it was clear he had a family who loved and supported him. I know he will be sadly missed but always in your thoughts with the memories he left you!
My deepest sympathies.

“ So hard to lose a dear childhood friend. Both Chad and I have heavy hearts and extend our deepest sympathies and prayers to Mrs. B, Mr. B, and John.

Ever since kindergarten, I could always count on Jeff to make me smile or laugh. I won't forget his smile or the mischievous gleam in his eye as he was about to crack a joke or make an incredible witty comment. You were never bored if you were in Jeff's company. I have many fond memories of him throughout our childhood, from hanging out after my piano lessons with Mr. B. in elementary school discussing music (To this day, I can't hear a Chuck Mangione song without thinking of Jeff), to being in band together in high school, to each of our weddings, and his visits at Christmas when he was in town from Ohio.

While our paths may not have crossed very much over the past few years, Jeff will always have a special place in my heart. I'd like to think he and some of our other friends are together now, each of them knowing how much they were loved.

Rest in peace, dear friend.

“ Jeff, thanks for being my high school best friend, best man at my wedding, and for just being my friend. You were the one who drove over eight hours to see me and spend time with me when I was living in western NY. I was 20 years old, alone and confused in the world, and you helped me deal with our friend’s illness. We had a lot of fun from Secret Stream to growing into adults. You are the only person I know that made being fashionably late, fashionable. Love you Jeff, I hope you find that synergy that together we tried so hard to find.

Jeff, there are so many things I'd like thank you for, whether it was being a teammate and challenge me or when the world was caving in on me later in life. I had such a great time getting the grand tour of Columbus and be able to see it from another side and being able to catch up. As one of the best dressed growing up, the way you presented yourself, you were always an inspiration, non judgemental and accepting- you've been missed and will surely be missed. I look forward to the day we can say hello again. When you were around, one never had to fear awkwardness, you were the epitome of an ice breaker and I learned that technique from you. Love ya brother, Billy Thomas

“ Jeff was top of the class smart, popular, a talented musician, quick with a joke, not above some mischief, and above all a great friend. In all the time I knew him, as boys and into adulthood, I don't recall a single time he was ever unkind or let me down in even a small way. We were lucky to have him in our circle of friendship.
