“ It wasn't supposed to end like this.. You were my neighbor basically my entire life and you were one of the nicest kids in the projects we grew up in, gave me hope for the rest of us, even if you were a trouble maker a lot of the time. You always knew how to make someone smile and that was the important thing.. I never really got the chance to thank you for being like an older brother to me and looking out for me growing up, so thank you.. I'm really gunna miss you 🥺

I only really knew you through the extreme love Madison and Tiffany always had and will have for you. After the pain of grief is gone I hope they feel your loving presence every day until you meet again.

“ I will miss you Jeffrey, I watched you grow from a little blonde freckled nose adorable little boy into a wonderful, kind, caring compassionate man, I love you, I will always remember how kind you were to me, making sure that I was shoveled out in snowstorms, doing little chores for me, and I'll never forget how comforting you were when I lost my son, you were the first to give me the biggest hug as soon as you saw me, and I'll always remember your kind and comforting words of support that helped me get through the darkest hours of my life, it's so heartbreaking that such a beautiful soul has gone way too soon, I will always remember you, never to forget, you are loved Jeff, May you be resting in the arms of the Angels❤️

Jeffrey I'm still trying to believe you are coming home I love you so much my boy I was so happy to be a big part of your life and not just saying these things because ur not here with us I would say to your face if I could. You grew up to be a nice young man you did so many good things for everyone and make people laugh including myself . I for sure will miss the fun little arguments at work that we had and I will def miss seeing and get flustered on how slow you were lol . I would take seeing you work so slow all over again and yes you were a perfectionist Jeffrey I love you and I would do anything for you to come home I love you my boy !!!! There will never be a day that I will not smile and or cry when I think of you Jeff I can not even fathom how much I will miss you I love u !!!!!!!
