

Jillian C. Scott

November 22, 2025

Hampton - Jillian C. Scott, 38, of Hampton and formerly of Intervale, NH and North Carolina, passed away in her sleep after a sudden illness on Saturday, November 22, 2025.

She was born in Newton, MA, the daughter of Michael W. And Cynthia (Hines) Scott. Raised in Hampton N.H. and Charlotte N.C. she graduated from Weddington High School with the class of 2005. She attended courses at community college and UNC Charlotte.

She became a licensed real estate agent in 2021. At the time of her death she was employed by Keller Williams Coastal and Lake & Mountains Realty.

In her youth she enjoyed piano, Girl Scouts, and marching band, and excelled in multiple sports. She was involved in many online support groups often giving as much support to others as she received herself. The love of her life was her daughter Layla whom she cherished dearly.

In addition to her parents, surviving family members include her brother Matthew of Washington D.C., her daughter Layla of N.H., and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

There will be no services at this time.

“ Jill was my niece, my goddaughter and my friend. She was beautiful, kind and funny. I can still hear her laughter. I miss that laughter. She and I bonded late in her life but you would never know it. We both shared a love for each other that is rare. I will treasure every moment every memory she was a gift and I was privileged to be her aunt. Love you and miss you Jill till we meet again. Always in my heart

“ We were saddened to hear of Jillian’s passing. She was much too young to leave. I always felt a connection with her, since her middle name was mine, although I know it was for my Mother, her Nana, and her great Grandmother. She will live on in the memories and hearts of those who loved her, especially her little girl. May she rest in blessed peace. Aunt Corinne & Doug

“ Anna was only 3 when we moved into our neighborhood.....one without other kids. Until....just months later.....the Scotts moved in ! Jillian was a sweet sweet girl who wowed us with her musical talents.
To this day, I wish I could play the piano as well as she did.
We were not fans when the Scotts moved to Charlotte.
We missed Jillian then....and ever more so now.

My heart breaks for Jill’s daughter and her parents. I had the pleasure of working with Jill as she began her real estate career. She wanted to do real estate because she cared a lot about other people and she believed that she would be able to help them. But by far, the person she cared about the most was her daughter Layla, who filled most of her heart. May there be peace where you are and know that there are many of us who will remember your time with us.

I wish I had the words to take away the pains of grief that comes on so strongly, after losing a precious soul so young and untimely. It's that kind of tragic loss that takes your breath away and makes you wonder if you can go on to the next day. I know that feeling more than I'd ever like to be able to attest to. I also know how that burden lightens but never goes away, a cost all loving hearts unfortunately, inevitably must afford themselves. Lauren, and my heart and love go out to you all now. We are so, so sorry for your profound loss...
