My deepest sympathies to Carol and Noel and your families. I met Carol while working at The House of Flowers in Hampton and the group of us became fast friends. What a warm and welcoming woman. She dearly loved your Dad and missed him every day. She was quite proud of her family and spoke lovingly about you two and her grandchildren. I loved Joan's hearty laugh and she had a distinct way of speaking that my son Josh does a great imitation of. Memories of weekends in Freedom will warm my heart whenever thoughts of sweet Joanie come to mind. May you take comfort in knowing she is reunited with your father and her Lord in Heaven.

My deepest condolences to Joan's family. I had the distinct pleasure to work with Joan at Seacoast Hospice, both as a board member and office volunteer. Her contributions to the organization were respected and her sense of humor often made difficult days easier. She adored her family and spoke of you so often. She also shared "God's country" with my family. I think of her and those times each time I cross the bridge in Freedom. I hope your memories of who she was will bring you peace.

Truly a life well lived. We worked together at Seacoast Hospice, an outstanding, caring and supportive person. Her memory is indeed a blessing to all who knew her.

Dawn and I had the pleasure meeting Joan over twenty years ago when she would come to Danforth Bay Camping Resort to do her Laundry early in the morning. What started as pleasant conversations over a simple cup of coffee developed into an amazing friendship with not only Dawn and I but our children as well. Our thoughts and prayers to her family. She was a very special lady.
