

Joanne M. Greenhalgh

December 9, 1949 - June 17, 2026

Hampton – Joanne M. Greenhalgh, 76, of Hampton, passed away unexpectedly at her home on Wednesday, June 17, 2026.

Born on December 9, 1949, in Boston, Massachusetts, she was the daughter of the late John and Ana (Crosby) Tierney. Joanne was raised in Somerville, Massachusetts, and later made her home in Franklin, where she raised her family. For the past 24 years, she resided in Hampton, New Hampshire.

A devoted caregiver throughout her life, Joanne owned and operated an in-home daycare center in Franklin, touching the lives of countless children and their families. She later worked as a Licensed Nursing Assistant in several nursing homes, continuing her lifelong commitment to caring for others.

Joanne found joy in life's simple pleasures. She was an avid reader, loved long walks along the beach, and took great pride in caring for her seven beloved birds.

Joanne is survived by her daughter, Joy P. MacNeil, and her husband Paul, her son Michael Greenhalgh, her sister Patricia Gardiner, her daughter-in-law Lynn Greenhalgh, and the father of her children, James Greenhalgh. She was also a proud grandmother to her eleven grandchildren: Colby, Sean, Bridget, Liam, Tiernan, Aiden, Nicole, Brenna, Quinn, Natalie, and James.

In addition to her parents, Joanne was predeceased by her children, Karen and Marc Greenhalgh, and her brother, John Tierney.

All services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Rhode Island Parrot Rescue in Joanne's memory, honoring her lifelong love of parrots by clicking here (<https://www.riparrots.org>).
