

John "Champy" Frank Woodburn

November 29, 1928 - January 14, 2025

Hampton - John "Champy" Frank Woodburn, 96 died peacefully on Tuesday, January 14, 2025.

John was born in Boston MA to John B. Woodburn and Frances Woodburn on November 29, 1928.

John served in World War II and the Korean War and participated in the Berlin Airlift, serving in both the US Navy and the US Air Force. When he returned home from serving his country, he was greeted by Jean Thistle who was babysitting his younger sister the day he returned. If you believe in love at first sight, they were married on November 13, 1955, and spent 62 loving years together until Jean's passing in 2018.

After moving to Hampton, NH in 1958, John completed his degree in Business Management became employed by the Internal Revenue Service and also served as a member of the Hampton Police Department. He was an active member of the community coaching little league football and baseball for many years, while simultaneously serving on the Hampton School Board for 30 years.

John's real passion was teaching kids, and he went back to college for his teaching certificate and taught Business Education at Sanborn Regional High School in Kingston NH, until he retired in 1990. His students loved him, as he was a great mentor, and continued to keep in touch and join him for lunch and activities; just recently spending his 96th birthday enjoying time with him.

John was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Jean, daughter Dianne Dewar, and granddaughter Mackenzie Dewar. He was also preceded by two sisters, Joanne Woodburn, and Florance Santos, and his brother Robert Woodburn. He is survived by his daughter Donna Nersesian, and grandchildren Ryan Dewar, Joshua Nersesian (Jessica), and Brynn Nersesian. He is also survived by his three cherished great-grandchildren, Sheadyn Dewar, Lola Olivas, and Declan Nersesian.

Family and friends will gather to honor and remember John for a period of visitation on Saturday, January 25, 2024, from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH 03842. A memorial service will take place immediately following the visitation at 4:00 p.m. in the funeral home.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Mr. Woodburns passing.
My thoughts and prayers are with his family and all of us that was part of his life.
He was a wonderful and patient teacher and I learned so much from his classes that he led me to have a passion for numbers and accounting.
May he rest in peace.

“ Uncle John, you were such a light.
Always smiling, always teasing! Every time that I think of you and our interactions, a smile naturally comes to my face.
Your presence and your energy will be missed by all, you built a huge community around you but you will be especially missed by your immediate family, you were their rock.
May you rest in beautiful peace now with Aunt Jean.
