“ I am so upset to learn of John’s passing. John was the nicest person on earth. He was my first boyfriend in high school. I was so happy to learn (on social media) that he finally found a beautiful wife to be happy with and share his life with together. I am so sorry for your loss, Sheri, Donna, Kim and Mom and wife. May the angels guide him into Jesus’s arms and May he rest in peace in paradise 🙏🌈 my condolences to everyone. Such sad news. He was a good man.

“ So difficult for me to put any words here. My brother & I were talking & texting on & off regular for the last 3 wk.s He was 16 mos. younger than I. I would pray for my brother regular at our church Brick City in Ocala Fl. My prayers started with God my brother deserves a true love in is life.

When I met Estelle appx. 6-7 yrs ago I Knew my prayers had been answered. She was going to be good for my brother. Moose was a tough guy on the outside. But on the inside & if you knew his history as I did you would understand where he was coming from.

We were 5 children of an immigrant family as so many were that came to the USA in the 50's. My Dad had lost his father when he was only 2. His mother my grandma Alice & my great Aunt Josie came to Watertown MA. for better work from Canada.. My Dad was a very hard worker He got to be supporting us all! He would share with Moose stick with your job if the pay is good & the longer your their you will benefit monetarily. My brother did Wow, 30 yr's with Costco.

Until Estelle came in the picture their was something missing in his life. My brother was not out going like his Dad. He could not express his feelings. I saw them on his face a plethora of times. I moved to Central Fl .40yr.'s ago. When I would fly up to visit we would always hang out at his apt. in Manchester & watch videos sometimes 3 in a row & make tuna fish sandwiches from a can. Cuz it was just easier. He needed more than a sister to have a relationship with. He was not a sports nut like my father. My parents small home was always loud & a bit chaotic .Our dad after being around sales all day had his outlet with all the sports. He was a manager in a local shoe store.

Yet my brother Moose hence the nick name. He liked going to the gym & was health conscience. But without true love as the bible states in 1 Corin. 13 we would be only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. I am so thankful my brother Moose met Estelle & her boys to have a love relationship & have the adventures they got to share. Those of us that know how the HEART ticks it is BEST to have had true love!!!

I Am grieving the loss of my only brother & that I will not be able to HUG him ever again! I know that he is in a better place & in no pain, grief or sorrow. Not having to push or come up with any solutions that may be arising. Peace Peace Peace Johnny “ OMGOODNESS I am in shock and heart broken. John was a customer of mine at Shaw's in Seabrook for years, and even a few times at the Stratham Shaw's I believe he said he was going to the Gym across the street up there. He took his health very serious, and working out was a huge part of his life... He loved getting a great bargain too... I am sorry sorry for all your losses. John will be miss, he was an awesome man. My thoughts, and prayers are with you all
