

John A. Ferrelli II

May 31, 1975 - October 19, 2020

Exeter – John Anthony Ferrelli II, 45, of Exeter, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on Monday, October 19, 2020 at the Exeter Hospital. John was born in Portsmouth on May 31, 1975, a son of Gail M. Howland of Freeport, ME and John A. Ferrelli of Portsmouth, NH.

John spent most of his youth in Portsmouth and graduated from Portsmouth High School with the Class of 1994. Shortly after graduation, he enlisted in the United States Army. Upon his discharge, he returned home and went to work with his life-long friend, Josh Hudson, at the Seabrook Nuclear Plant. After 4 years in Seabrook, John went to work for Newark Atlantic Paperboard of Lawrence, MA and in 2003 took a position with Foss Manufacturing in Hampton, where he was working at the time of his death.

John was a hard-working and loving family man. His family was his world and he never missed any of his son John's many sporting events, even after working all night. He managed Babe Ruth, Cal Ripken baseball, and also volunteered his time as a coach for the Little Warriors Football Team. He also loved watching John and his teammates compete at their wrestling tournaments. He served an inspiration to his son and many of his son's friends and teammates. When he did have any free time, John loved watching sports, especially the Patriots and always enjoyed playing cards, poker being his favorite, with his friends and family. He loved spending time with his daughter

Fionna at the park, and spending time with Ninya teaching her how to drive.

In addition to his parents, John leaves his significant other, Amy DesRochers of Hampton, his son, John Ferrelli, III, of Exeter, his daughters Fionna Ferrelli and Ninya Beckwith, his brother Justin Lampros of Freeport, ME, his sister, Stephanie Indeck of Lovell, ME, and his nephews Cameron Brown and Jacob Indeck. He also leaves his best friend Joshua Hudson of Portsmouth, John's mother, Margaret Janvrin, of North Berwick, ME, and his aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He was predeceased by his brother, Joseph Ferrelli.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 PM on Tuesday, October 27, 2020 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home – Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Masks are required and social distancing must be maintained. Services and burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to John's son and daughter, Fionna and John Ferrelli III in their time of need. Please visit GoFundMe (<http://Gf.me/u/y58tpz>)

Just as we use to "((type & delete))" during our old online chats (haha); I find myself doing the same damn thing now trying to find the right words. I'm pretty convinced that there are no right words! The only right words that make any sense to say right now is that I LOVE YOU & my Heart is Broken. You will 4ever be one of my Bestest Friends & I promise to hold onto all the special memories you've made with me & my children over the past 16 years (Especially Brendan)...You share such a big part of the man he is today! And Despite the fact that I don't believe your purpose in life should've been finished here on Earth & you're life was most definitely cut too short; God apparently had a different plan for you! I guess I would selfishly disagree with his plan! And we all know how much I like to agree to disagree! But for good reason this time; because a Good man like you is hard to find. A Good Honest friend is hard to find. You were Both. I could ask you anything; I could trust & tell you anything & I'm gonna miss you in my Life! Looking back thru our texts; One of the last things you wrote to me was "Rest those Pretty Eyes". Well; sadly those Pretty Eyes are heavy & filled with tears for you right now. And I know you wouldn't want me to be crying these tears for you & Trust me; I subconsciously can hear your voice with your notorious words to me saying "Suck it up; Buttercup". I'm sorry...But this really hurts!!

And when I think about your children; That hurts so much worse. I'm devastated for them. I can't even imagine what they are feeling right now. They couldn't have asked for a better father! Their lives will never be the same! But i'm certain they will continue to make you proud! Please give Amy the strength to get thru this & Please watch over all of them!

You've touched so many people's lives & you've been an inspiration & a Mentor as well. You will be deeply missed by so many friends & family! We know you will still be here in Spirit. And I know that eventually that will bring some sort of comfort to all your loved ones! But for now; just know that I Miss you Much & Love you Lotz! Hugs & Kisses to you up in Heaven My Friend! XOXO. And I refuse to end this without our special wink ;-)
