“ We have been blessed to know John and Patricia for over 50 years. John and Bill were friends in college, and I met Patricia for the first time at their wedding rehearsal. We have shared many of life's journeys with them. Our lives have been made richer because of John and Patricia. We are truly thankful for their friendship. John will be missed

“ John was the greatest cribbage player. We won many games together as partners. We loved all going out to eat and playing games together all four of us. He was a great friend and so easy to get along with. We'll never forget the New Year's Eve trip we took together.

“ I couldn't have asked for a better father-in-law. He was so kind and fun in every way. We had so many fun memories of playing games. And of course, rarely could a game be complete until he had changed the rules in some way to make it more fun :) He will be dearly missed.

“ John was a great father to his children and a super Uncle. He had a brilliant mind, was a championship level table tennis player and a remarkable memory for sport statistics. I remember John as a hardy IU basketball fan always cheering faithfully. I still have plenty of memories from Pat and John's wedding in Indianapolis. Pat, Cindy, Robert, Sandy, Mark, Erin, Anna and Skylar, I'm sorry for your loss. I thought today about the message from Joe Klotz's funeral with the simple but loving headline "Safely Home". God bless you all.

I knew John from our days at Eli Lilly—wonderful person—the world benefited from his presence. As a fellow Cub fan, I'm so glad that both of us were able to enjoy the 2016 World Championship season. All the Best to the family—God speed to John.

i worked very closely with John from April, 1987 until his retirement . He truly was a person of high integrity. i had the utmost respect for him as a person and a professional. His knowledge of Accounting was superb. While i haven't seen John since his retirement an move to NH, but have thought about him often. He taught me a lot over the years.
