“ Just learned of Johnny's passing over two years later. How heartbreaking. My sympathy to the family. He was such a great man. We didn't talk much after 2013 but I will never forget that last conversation, his laugh or his compassion for those that mattered to him. May he Rest In Peace.

“ To Jeannie and the entire LaCreta family, our hearts are broken. We are so very sorry for your loss.

John Michael was a special soul. He loved family and good times. I will forever be grateful for the memories we created thanks to John and Jeannie. The summer family reunions were so special.

John was my big cousin, larger than life! Gentle and kind! God rest his soul and bless his family.

Deepest condolences,

Rich, Kelly and Bella

“ So sorry to hear of John's passing. He was truly one of the good guys. His class and humanity always impressed me. I would occasionally see him outside his office, and when he would come "downstairs" for his eye care. We would debate music (he hated Springsteen), and pizza, (he loved Santarpios), among other topics. I'll miss those conversations. Rest in peace, my friend. Tom Fabello

“ Dear Jeannie and LaCreta family~ I was shocked and saddened to learn of John Michaels passing. John Michael was one of my favorite customers. I worked at the Lowell Downtown Post Office and we saw one another frequently and had a great time talking about music, dogs, Vegas and the crazy folks we both knew from Lowell. He was a gentle giant, smart, talented and funny. Jeannie, I remember him getting your engagement ring. You were certainly his true love, as were his fur babies. My heartfelt sympathy to all of you.
