“ John: may the angels transport you to God in Heaven. So sorry - you will be greatly missed. You faithfully came to visit my mother and prayed with her for 10 years prior to her passing on into eternity. I will never forget you being there the night she died exactly 19 years ago today. You have been a cornerstone of strength for all who came into your presence. God rest your beautiful soul. You will be missed greatly.

*Sr. Doris: - Your eulogy was beautiful. I am the person you were talking about with the blind mother. Today, June 16th, is the 19th Anniversary of her Passing into eternity. I miss John so much and was so sorry to see him suffer at the end of his life. Let's hope it prepared his path into Heaven with God. He was so good to my mother, praying with her all the time and for ten years paid her visits and said the Rosary with her. He brought her(my mother) great solace and peace when he went to visit. He came over the night she died/passed and said the rosary. I am so sorry that I missed his funeral but it was not possible for me to go.
