I knew John from GVSC, circa 1977. He was quick-witted, a fire cracker about the truth, and adored his family. He and his family were a real addition to Muskegon and North Muskegon. John was high functioning and his empathy was amazing. He would tell you when you crossed a line. But would complement you when you made a saintly breakthrough. He was a fine addition to an alternative college. I haven't seen this man in over 40 years. Best to his family and friends.
