“ My favorite place to spend the holidays, especially New Years was always at Uncle Johnny and Aunt Mary's in Rhinebeck--laughing, playing cards, eating great food. So many fond memories of sharing great times with my cousins -- these will last my life time! Thank you for all the laughs - you will be missed. Rest now in eternal peace!

“ George and I are so sorry for Aunt Mary and all our cousins. Uncle Johnny was such a special guy, always a big smile on his face, and so loving. We feel terrible that we never got to drive up in the RV, life is just so hectic. He was always laughing and was always my favorite. Heaven received a very special man this week. God Bless and love to all.
