

John B. McCreary

December 23, 1962 - May 17, 2026

Hampton - John B. McCreary, 63, of Hampton passed away on Sunday, May 17, 2026 at home following a courageous battle with cancer. John was born in Exeter, NH on December 23, 1962. He lived, attended school and worked in the Seacoast area for most of his life. He spent a few years living and working in Taiwan and South Africa.

John is survived by his sister, Lorelei Davis, her husband Spiro, his niece Tess Davis, and his aunt, Claire Hamel. John leaves behind several aunts, uncles, and cousins. John was predeceased by his parents, George and Jeannine McCreary, and his brother Bill McCreary.

John was born with the soul of a musician and could play virtually any instrument. He was most happy when he was jamming with his friends and the many bands he was part of over the years.

John even founded a Beatles cover band in Taiwan and played at several venues in Taipei.

He was modest, humble, and unpretentious. John was deeply sentimental and wore his heart on his sleeve.

John will be remembered for his love of music, and the warmth and sincerity he brought to those who knew him. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and fellow musicians.

A visiting hour will be held from 10 - 11 am on Thursday, June 25, 2026 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton. A service will immediately follow at 11 am in the funeral home. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Burial will be private.

“ Lorelei, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of John. He was such a great friend growing up and remember spending Saturdays at Pizza Hut talking about the Beatles and drums. Your mom took us to see Beatlemania and a couple years ago he and I went and saw Denny Laine of Paul McCartney and wings in Boston. He had been in my thoughts recently. May he Rest in Peace. My Thoughts and Prayers are with you and your family.
