Hampton – John T. “Jack” Doheny, Jr., 83, of Hampton, died Tuesday, September 21, 2021 at Portsmouth Regional Hospital after a period of failing health. He was born in Arlington, MA, September 11, 1938 a son of the late John T. Doheny and Josephine (Leonard) Rappa.

Jack was a veteran serving with the United States Marine Corps. Years after his discharge he moved to Brooklyn, NY where he spent years bartending and working on the floor of the NYSE. Family was most important to Jack. He loved gatherings and cookouts, catching up and sharing laughs. Jack was a real straight shooter and always had time to listen and show his support.

“ My condolences for the family from cousin Howard Loveless, in Lewisburg, TN. May the peace of our Precious Savior Jesus, penetrate the loved ones of Jack, as they grieve his loss and heaven's gain. As a Marine, he is now on Guard Detail on Heavenly streets. I as a fellow Marine will be on that Detail as my watch comes due. Our mothers were sisters and he now will be in the same place with them and Nana Lenard and her mother NaNa Abbot. God bless ya'll as we say in the south.
