

John A. Yell Jr.

November 26, 1942 - January 4, 2014

Seabrook - John A. Yell, Jr., 71, a longtime resident of Seabrook, died Saturday, January 4, 2014 at his home after a lengthy illness, surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Amesbury, Mass., November 26, 1942 a son of the late John A. and Evelyn (Bailey) Yell.

Mr. Yell was a veteran serving with the US Navy and later with the Army Reserves.

He was employed as a custodian at Seabrook Middle School for 10 years retiring in 2000. In his earlier years he served as a police officer for the town of Seabrook.

Most important to John was his love and passion for all his grandchildren. He was also an avid hunter, fisherman, enjoyed lobster fishing and was a member of the Raymond E. Walton American Legion Post 70.

Family members include six children, John Swart and wife Betty, Yvonne Colin and John all of Seabrook, Keith Swart and wife Rachelle of Holly Springs, NC, Yvette Bradley of Seabrook, Daniel Yell and Kim of Amesbury, Mass., Karen Maynard of Seabrook, twelve grandchildren, one great granddaughter, two brothers, Wayne Yell and wife Joycelyn of Amesbury, Mass., Edward Yell of Seabrook, his sister, Raylene Tetreault of Conn. and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his brother, Richard Yell and his grandson, Little Robby Moore, Jr.

Visiting hours will be from 4-7 P.M. Wednesday, January 8, 2014 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Services will immediately follow at 7 P.M. in the funeral home. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. The family suggests donations to Rockingham VNA & Hospice, 137 Epping Road, Exeter, NH 03833.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. One encouraging thought you might find comforting is found at John 5:28, 29. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” God gives us the hope that he will soon resurrect our dead loved ones and we can see them again. Won't that be wonderful! I hope that has comforted you as it has me.

when my husband Robert Fowler passed away John was at the house every day until Rob was buried. Rob was at the house and I knew that Rob's death hurt John very much they were close friends they were both police offers at the time so really they were brother because of being a officer. my heart is sad knowing he has passed. John was a great man in my eyes and my prayers go out to his family he will be missed.
last time I saw John I was doing pictures of stones in wildwood cemetery Paul Bradley was there talking to me I looked a said to Paul is that john Yell walking there and John said yea its me he said I still have my hearing but everything else is shot to hell he made me laugh. Rest in peace my good friend .
