“ Joe was an amazing friend to my uncles, Boyd and Bruce Walsh, from Haverhill. I've known Joe since I was born. Both my uncles passed in their early 30's and Joe was still a good family friend, checking in on my grandmother and stopping to say hi to me when I worked at Hampton Beach. Likely, he is partying with Boyd and Bruce, who would have found a way to put a smile on an April 1 departure from here to there. Goodbye Joe!

A friend thru the years who always had fun and a laugh to share. So ironic that April 1st was his passing. He will be surely missed.

“ I worked with Joe at Patriots Corner as a kid! Great guy, always had a smile and a joke to tell! Sad to hear that he's gone so soon!

“ As a younger surfer at north beach, Joe was always part of the scene.

Had fun times surfing with him and always a positive influence to the younger surfers in the 80's and forward.

Always friendly, encouraging, and supportive.

Appreciate people from my past who you were glad to see when you saw them.

I will remember Joe with positive memories.

My thoughts are with Owen, as well as Joe's entire family.

I just liked Joe.

He was a good guy and as I have not seen him in many years, I will remember him fondly.

RIP JOE.
