

Joseph Louis Krol

November 5, 1932 - November 14, 2023

Joseph Louis Krol of Hampton, NH, died peacefully November 14, 2023 at the age of 91. He was predeceased by his father, Joseph John Krol and mother, Helen (Satrowsky) Radloff. Survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Sharyl (Way) Krol, son Michael Krol (Merely) of Churchville, NY, daughters, Sandra Valliere (Richard) of Freedom, NH and Shawna Poisson (Matthew) of Holly Springs, NC, six grandchildren, Marisa Esler (Daniel), Grayson Krol (Rebekah), Laura Boutin (Rachel), Nicole Poisson, Heather Poisson, and Sarah Poisson, and six great-grandchildren with number seven on the way, sister Barbara Quanz of Wayland, NY, and several nieces and nephews.

Joe was born on November 5, 1932 in Turners Falls, MA where he grew up. He graduated from Bentley College in Boston, MA. He spent his entire career, of over thirty years, at Eastman Kodak in Rochester, NY. Upon his retirement, Joe and Sharyl moved to Hampton, NH, fulfilling Joe's dream of returning to New England. They became true "snowbirds" spending their winters in Boca Raton, FL, making many happy memories with friends and family on the beaches of NH and Florida.

Joe loved his family and was extremely proud of his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Second to his love of his family was his love of baseball and the Boston Red Sox. He played in a 55 and over softball league in Florida until the age of 80. He and Sharyl had the good fortune to attend

World Series games in 1975 and 1986. Happily, Joe lived to see the Red Sox win four World Series Championships.

The family would like to thank the staff at Benchmark at Rye for the loving care they provided Joe this past year.
