“ Joe was a warm, charismatic soul, always willing to lend a hand and share that smile. I hadn't had the pleasure of seeing him recently but always break into a grin when thinking of him. His dad, Fred, was a long time client of mine and obviously passed on the friendly and amiable traits to Joe. Each of us will undoubtedly hear a song, smell a scent, or be at a restaurant where we'll feel Joe's presence there...He is.....just look skyward, laugh, and tell him you can't wait to see him on the other side. He'll be there waiting to give you a hug.

“ You were always a smiling face on the other side of the line. No matter how your day had gone, you always exuded an air of happiness. You mentored many people with patience and kindness; attributes that are rare and treasured in a mentor. You are gone, but not forgotten. Rest easy my friend.

“Good people pass away; the godly often die before their time. But no one seems to care or wonder why. No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come. For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die.”
