“ It was an honor to know Josh. Despite everything, whenever I saw him, he was always happy and positive. Josh is the strongest and toughest person I have ever met and probably ever will. I wish I had half the courage that Josh had. My family sends our deepest condolences to all of the Sharpe family. Love & prayers, The Rowells.

“ It was an honor to travel a bit with Josh as one of his nurses. I will carry him in my heart always. Once , early last summer, he invited me for a ride in one of the scooters. What a hoot!!! I learned a bit about perseverance from him. Though for too brief a time, he blessed us all with his presence. I pray for comfort for his family. ....Diane
