

Judith E. Day

December 26, 1948 - November 2, 2022

North Hampton – Judith Elizabeth Day, 73, of North Hampton, passed peacefully Wednesday, November 2, 2022 at Portsmouth Regional Hospital. She was born in Salem, MA, December 26, 1948 the daughter of the late Robert and Esther (Donovan) Day.

While a kindergartner, her family moved to Falmouth, ME where she attended Pine Grove elementary and Falmouth High School, graduating in 1966. She received her bachelor's from the University of New Hampshire in 1970 and her doctorate in special education in 1994, also from UNH.

She taught special education at the former Marston School in Portsmouth as well as North Hampton and Rye Elementary schools. She retired from Leslie College in 2006 after many years teaching practicing teachers in special education.

She made her home in North Hampton from 1990, moving from Eliot, ME. Judy was elected to the New Hampshire House of Representatives in 2006 and 2008 serving Rockingham County District 22. She served on successful 3 presidential campaigns.

Judy had a genuine interest in justice and peace for people, animals and our land. For the Town of North Hampton, she was a coauthor of warrant articles for an elected Planning Board, an elected Zoning Board and a 100-foot wetlands setback protection ordinance; all passed by the voters. She served on 3 Municipal Building committees and a Town Charrette. She was elected to Planning Board and Library Board of Trustees.

Judy was the author of a children's book, The Good Wizard's Castle, illustrated by Alan Eves. She was a creative artist and lover of music and theater. Judy had a unique and admirable way of looking at life, a kind soul with a gentle manner and contagious laugh.

She leaves her husband with whom she shared 46 years of marriage, R. Laurence "Larry" Miller of North Hampton and her brother Thomas Day and his wife Beth of Guilford. Her dogs, Spirit and Dickon and her cats, Bella and Sky will miss her too.

Judy wished to acknowledge her longtime friends, Mary Clarity of Alexandria, VA, Margaret Delano of Falmouth, ME, the late Jane Palmer, Jane Boesch, Nancy Monaghan and Lisa Wilson all of North Hampton.

Visiting hours will be from 2-4 PM Sunday, December 11, 2022 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of traditional remembrances, donations may be made by clicking here to the New Hampshire SPCA (<https://nhspca.org>) PO Box 196, Stratham, NH 03885.

“ Sending deepest condolences to you Larry on hearing the sad news of Judy’s passing from Mary Clarity today. Judy was an extra special, kind, bright fascinating, talented and free spirited woman and so thankful she touched my life even if only over a few exceptional years. She was a joy to work with while we both served in the NH House. Always incredibly supportive and we accomplished good trouble together. Judy touched so many lives in so many positive ways and know she will be missed greatly. Thinking of you, Larry and sending sincere heart felt thoughts as you wade through this difficult grieving time. Will never forget Judy’s amazingly uplifting laugh. Such a bright spirit she was.

“ Sorry that Mario and I can't be at her memorial as we are out of town.

Judy made Mill Road just a little brighter cheering on Christmas lights and raving about our green front porch. Likewise, Hudson and Sofie cheered her on during her morning walks about the neighborhood. She was our 1st neighbor who truly made us feel welcomed.

“ So many trips together to Concord to the State House as reps. Talking and laughing about "politics", our dogs, her houses, and how we could make the world better. Her awesome Christmas cards, her laugh, thoughtfulness, and love of soup! Her spirit will remain with all her loved and knew her.

Judy, I remember your beautiful smile, your free spirit, and your beauty, both inward and outward.
Rest In Peace, and my God Bless your husband, your family members, and your "furry" family members.
Thank you for being a part of my life, and for giving me beautiful memories to cherish. You will be forever loved, and missed. ❤️🙏
