

Judith A. Smith

December 19, 1940 - February 14, 2016

Exeter – Judith A. Smith, 75, of Exeter, died peacefully Sunday, February 14, 2016 at Exeter Center.

She was born December 19, 1940 in North Hampton a daughter of the late Clarence and Doris (Woodburn) Marston.

Spending a number of years in North Hampton she later moved to South Hampton after marrying her late husband of 20 years Guy Smith. She eventually moved to Exeter, where she made her home since 1999.

Judith worked as a caretaker for various families throughout the seacoast area as well as running an at home daycare for many years. She was a good cook who enjoyed all games, especially poker. Her grandchildren were her life and she was very happy to be able to attend Alexas' wedding and see Ryan perform the lead role in Proof at Keene State College, both in 2015.

Family members include her son Jeffrey Connell; brothers, Walter Marston, Floyd Marston, Ralph Marston and his wife Lily, Keith Marston; sisters, Dolly Silver, Shirley Whenal and Brenda Carter; grandchildren, Alexas Nikiforakas and her husband Will, Ryan Connell; great granddaughter Ellie Nikiforakas and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband she was predeceased by her brothers, George, Dennet and Richard Marston; sisters, Gloria Hanely, Lucile Washburn and Rosemary Verno.

A Memorial service will be held at 2 PM on Sunday, February 28, 2016 in the Saint James Lodge # 102 F. & A.M., 77 Tide Mill Road Hampton, NH 03842. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 11454, Alexandria, VA 22312.
