“ My dear, dear friend Judi,

I called you, always, Jude, following the song "Hey Jude" way back when. I don't know where to begin. I am sick with grief over the loss of my dear, close to my heart, life-long friend, Jude. We were 14 years old in Parochial High School when we met ... when you shared your Italian sandwich with me one time behind the desk cover. I, never you, was the only one who ever got caught by Sister Frisca. We had so many memories together, so very many laughs and tears. You were in every part of my life and will always remain there. When you walked into a room, you were the sunshine with that big friendly smile on your face! Even my family, my parents, fell in love with you. We played Rummy sometimes 'til 1:00 in the morning, with my brother Buddy, who also came to be your close friend. Your Mom called late more than one of those evenings. She didn't believe that's all we were doing, playing cards, which made it all the funnier. I was sick, preparing for surgery, and didn't get to be with you before you passed. I don't know how I will ever live with that major regret, even though it couldn't be helped. I thank you for your giving heart and, especially, for all the laughs, for which I will ever be grateful. I love you, my dear Jude! You were such a rich and giving part of my life. I thank you for your giving heart and, especially, for all the laughs, for which I will ever be grateful. You were not a body, my friend. You are a spirit, and now you are truly free.
