“ My special memory of my Aunt is when we went to visit her and my cousins in New Hampshire, I was very young maybe 6 or 7. Aunt Karen looked just like Cher with her long hair and all the turquoise she wore. I remember eating clams for the first time in the shell. I remember we were allowed to ride one of the Horses if we cleaned the stalls first. She had beautiful horses. I love you Aunt Karen ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Karen was Angie and Johnny's Mom when I grew up in Hampton Falls and she was the one woman who was tougher than my Mama! She loved horses, her kids, and us. I remember her as a take no bs woman and a survivor. Rest in power and thank you for showing me the power of being a woman!
